CALL FOR PAPERS

Submission Guidelines

All papers for the International Summer Camp on Education for Sustainable Development are REQUIRED to be submitted electronically. A paper may only be submitted once, with no retractions or modifications once received by the secretariat. Once submitted, the order and names of authors listed on the original submission may not be altered including indication of the lead author's name.

The Secretariat will correspond with the Lead (primary) author only. Co-presenters should not contact the secretariat. It is the primary author's responsibility to notify all co-presenters regarding the status of the proposal as well as to notify the Summer Camp secretariat of any change in the Lead Author's contact information. All presenters are required to register for the full conference registration. All travel and additional expenses, including the conference registration fee, are the responsibility of the presenter(s).

The Summer Camp papers will be composed of several types of contributions:

- Full Papers (for academics) – these include mainly accomplished research results and have 8 pages at the maximum (5000 words).
- Short Papers (for academics and youth leaders) – These include fresh concepts, preliminary research results but may also contain work-in progress reports. These have 4 pages at maximum (2500 words).
- Reflection Papers (for academics, youth leaders, media practitioners and Government, NGO, International Organization heads)– These might review recent research literature pertaining to a particular problem or approach, indicate what the findings suggest, and/or provide a suggestion - with rationale and justification - for a different approach or perspective on that problem. Reflection papers might also analyze best practices in youth led projects for Sustainable Development,
